Description

As we begin the new school year, please join us and our guest speakers Michelle Todd and Bennett Rodick as they review with us the major changes in special education law. Issues will range from mandatory reporting, to new special education form requirements, to DACA and much more. Bring your questions and issues and expect a fun program. Don't miss this unique opportunity to lower your legal risk (and attorneys' fees).

Target Audience

This roundtable is targeted towards special education administrators who serve in the roles of directors, supervisors, coordinators, principals, assistant principals, or any special education leadership position.
