Attorney Teri Engler of Engler Callaway Baasten & Sraga, LLC joins us again this year for her popular special education law round-up to kick off 2022! Topics will include post-pandemic RtI/MTSS and child find issues, improving your goal-writing practices, preparing for and conduction of manifestation determination meetings and other special education discipline issues, an update on current restraint and time out requirements, and other special education legal updates (case law, guidance, etc.). There will be plenty of time for Q&A as well. Don't miss this informative and engaging professional development opportunity.

Presenter:
Teri Engler

Teri Engler is a founding partner at Engler Callaway Baasten & Sraga, LLC. For nearly four decades, Teri has concentrated her school law practice in the areas of special education/disability law and other student issues and has represented school districts and cooperatives throughout Illinois. She is currently a member of the IAASE's Legislative Committee and Chair of the Illinois Council of School Attorneys. Teri has previously been an Adjunct Professor at Loyola University's School of Law and Graduate School of Education, and has served as a member of the Illinois Attorney General's Special Committee on Special Education, the National Louis University Special Education Advisory Board, and numerous other professional committees and organizations in the fields of law and education. She regularly lectures on special education and other school law topics at local, state and national conferences, seminars, webinars, and training programs, and has frequently been recognized by Chicago Magazine as an "Illinois Super Lawyer" in the area of schools and education.
