

Workshops & Academies 2022

Whole Child Engagement (Virtual)

Jacqueline A. Rhew, LCPC, CADC & Matthew Liberatore, LCPC

Tuesday, April 19, 2022 - 9:00am - 12:00pm Register Here

Location: Online Via Zoom (Link to come)

The goal of this workshop is to focus on ways to engage students and families in the education process, meet the emotional needs of students more effectively and efficiently, and to create parent partnerships that support student resiliency.

Outcomes:

1. Look at the value of using data to guide interventions and responses to promote student, educator and family engagement
2. Review the Whole Child Engagement Model, including evidence based student support strategies that reflect a trauma informed approach
3. Learn interventions to support students struggling with school refusal, anxiety, and avoidant behaviors

This event is being funded an ISBE IDEA discretionary grant

Presenter:
Jacqueline A. Rhew,
LCPC, CADC

As the co-founder of the Center for Emotional Wellness of the Northwest Suburbs, Jacqueline is an expert in her field and is called upon by hundreds of school districts both locally and internationally for consulting staff in order to better serve their youth. Jacqueline served as a Clinical Consultant for AMITA Health Alexian Brothers Behavioral Health Hospital for the past 10 years.

Previously, Jacqueline also served as Assistant Director of the Alexian Brothers Behavioral Health School Anxiety/School Refusal Program where she was instrumental in the creation, development, and success of the program. Jacqueline has presented as Keynote Speaker and facilitated, both locally and nationally, over 500 trainings, webinars, and workshops on a variety of topics. Her ability to relate to her audience along with her vast knowledge and experiences working with children, adolescents, families, and professionals combine to make her a sought after expert in the mental health field.

Jacqueline has authored multiple publications throughout her career and is the coauthor of The Successful Parenting Workbook: Create Your Custom Plan for Raising Independent Children into Adulthood. She has been interviewed by several newspapers and magazines, including the Chicago Tribune, the Daily Herald, and Chicago Parent, providing expertise on bullying behavior as well as treatment options for school-avoidant adolescents. She has also been featured on Chicago ABC and CBS for her exemplary work and insight. Jacqueline has specific expertise in a multitude of areas including school anxiety, school avoidance, eating disorders, self-injury, substance abuse, gaming addictions, grief issues, trauma, depression, and anxiety.

Workshops & Academies 2022

Presenter:
Matthew Liberatore,
LCPC

Dr. Matt Liberatore, LCPC is founder and Clinical Psychotherapist at Luminary Solutions, PLLC, Adjunct Professor at Depaul University, and senior advisor to Intellispark. As an educational leader with over 10 years experience Matt has held positions as a school and district leader and is the past-president of the Illinois School Counselor Association.

Matt earned his Doctorate in Education Leadership from Concordia University and also holds his Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor credential. In addition, Matt holds two master's degrees in Counseling and Education Leadership from Saint Xavier University and Northeastern Illinois University respectively.

Within education, Matt has developed a passion for utilizing student achievement data to drive and leverage student success. Matt has researched the utilization of data to create efficiency and knowledge over caseload management. Matt has shared this expertise at regional and national conferences, where he presents on a Transformed Approach Student Engagement.